"Summer cooking implies a sense of immediacy, a capacity to capture the essence of the fleeting moment."

- Elizabeth David, food writer (1913-1992)

I must admit that I'm sort of a fall/winter food kind of person. I like the cozy comfort of it and it seems to carry with it a sense of festiveness that appeals to my love of all things traditional. Don't get me wrong, I completely embrace the fresh vibrancy of our local ingredients during the warmer months, but we all have our favorites! Nevertheless, as I was working on this quarter's brochure, I found myself fiercely craving the food I was writing about. After all, who wouldn't swoon over Rich Rau's Sweet-Spicy-Garlicky Sticky Wings, MaryKate Perry's Raspberry Ricotta Cake, or Lee Ann Ufford's Tomato Napoleons with Prosciutto Vinaigrette? It just all sounds so good. I may become a summer food convert!

You can bet that the food will be good at our wine and beer dinners this summer. We have the Barnard Griffin Wine dinner in June, perfect as a gift for dad, the Full Sail Brewing Co. dinner in July, a pub-style affair, and the Xinh-Madsen Family Cellars Wine dinner in August, a pairing that will really "knock it out of the park!" Each dish is carefully chosen to go with its complementary wine or beer accompaniment and I guarantee you'll love the experience!

If you haven't had the opportunity to go with us on one of our special market tours, I invite you to come along! This June, Barb Agee and I will lead a Thurston County food and wine tour, in July, Soitza will take us on a Mexican tour in Seattle and Tacoma and in August, Pranee will take us on a tour of Seattle's International District. These trips are so much fun and you learn a lot too!

Speaking of fun, BSC is featuring classes with three wonderful, local food trucks - Arepa, Nineveh, and Akashic. Find out how to make some of their offerings while tasting their wonderful food. We're also doing classes with two incredible restaurants - one is now almost an Olympia landmark, Docksido Bistro and the other is brand new, The Governor's Cellar, located inside the Governor Hotel.

Of course, the summer wouldn't be complete without our summer kids' camps! We're super excited because the theme is "Around the World with Disney!" Need I say more? I hope your summer is relatively carefree, not too fleeting, and brimming with good food.

Hope to see you soon, upstairs in the BSC kitchen!
