A Spanish Dinner with Salida Winery

Doug McCrea, winemaker

Paula Liechty and Leanne Willard, your chefs for the evening

Veteran Washington winemaker Doug McCrea, inspired by his New Orleans roots, launched Salida in 2006, producing his first Tempranillo. Salida means "to exit," a metaphor for harvest when the grapes leave the vineyards to be transformed into wine. Join Doug when he visits BSC to talk about his winery and the beautiful Spanish-style wines it produces. Paula and Leanne cook up a Spanish menu beginning with Gambas al Ajillo, Spanish Garlic Shrimp matched with Albarino, and a Vegetable Tortilla Espanola with Endive, Radicchio and Arugula Salad that's paired with the Tempranillo. Smoky Spanish Albondigas (meatball) Soup goes perfectly with Salida's Malbec, and the main dish of Chicken and Chorizo Paella is lovely with their Fuego Sagrado. For the grand finale, Gateau Basque with Red Wine Cherries is teamed with Salida's Graciano, an apt ending for a memorable evening!

Saturday, February 17th, 6:00-8:30 pm

A Cozy Winter Dinner with Bogle Vineyards

Ronnie Gedatus, Bogle Representative

Barb Agee and Leanne Willard, your chefs for the evening

The Bogle family has been farming since the mid-1800's, but it wasn't until 1968 that the father and son team of Warren and Chris planted their first 20 acres of wine grapes in Clarksburg, California. Today Bogle Vineyards farms over 1,500 acres of wine grapes and the success of Bogle over the years is rooted in one thing, the day-to-day involvement of the Bogle family. Join Bogle Winery representative Ronnie Gedatus to learn about their wines and taste five of their best paired with a wintery menu presented by Barb and Leanne. Start with Shrimp and Boston Lettuce Salad with Garlic and Mint Dressing matched with Bogle Sauvignon Blanc, and Butternut Squash Soup with Roasted Fennel and Pecans, served with Bogle Pinot Noir. An appetizer course of Lamb Phyllo Triangles is perfect with the Bogle Essential Red and Beef Bourguignon with Buttered Egg Noodles is complemented by their Cabernet Sauvignon. For dessert, Pear Galette with Whipped Cream and Zinfandel Sauce pairs beautifully with Bogle Zinfandel.

Wednesday, January 31st, 6:00-8:30 pm

Beau Legs Favorites

Chef Jermaine Harris

Tucked away in the Hawks Prairie area, popular, family-owned Beau Legs Fish 'N' Chips has been serving up some wonderful, classic Cajun, Creole and soul-food specialties for the past eight years. Chef Jermaine visits BSC and shares favorites from his heritage including, steeped-in-southern-tradition Shrimp and Crayfish Etoufee, his amazing Clam Chowder, and delicate Salmon Croquettes. Come and see why this place has some of the best food in the Olympia area that you may not have tasted! Complementary beer pairing.

Thursday, February 8th, 6:00-8:30 pm

The 6th Annual Olympia's Next Top Chef

Three student contestants from South Puget Sound Community College's Culinary Arts Program

Be a judge and member of the audience at BSC's sixth annual Olympia's Next Top Chef! Watch, learn, and taste as three of SPSCC Culinary Arts Program's most talented students compete with an original entrée. As with the popular television program "Chopped," they must use five specified ingredients: Extra Lean Ground Beef, Cauliflower, Cinnamon, Dried Sour Cherries and Castelvetrano Olives, in addition to whatever other ingredients they'd like to use. You get to judge them on teaching style, taste, visual presentation and creativity. The winner will teach their own class at BSC in the summer. Don't miss this chance to watch Olympia's new culinary talent in action! Complementary wine pairings. (Please note class times)

Wednesday, February 28th, 6:00-8:30 pm

Hands-On Timpano

Lee Ann Ufford

Made famous by its starring role in the movie The Big Night, a Timpano is a gorgeous celebratory entree, an edible drum made of rosemary pastry, filled with fresh pasta, Italian meats, eggs, and a rich, slow-simmered ragu. With Lee Ann as your guide and working as a group, participants will make the pastry, assemble the drum and lid and roll the pasta. The Timpano will be served with Insalata Mista, with winter greens and olives, and Buttery Garlic Bruschetta. The evening will come to a sweet finish with a frozen Amaretti Semifreddo. Join Lee Ann for this "Big Night" of hands-on fun. Complementary wine pairing.

Hands-On Lefse and Kransekage Cookies

Carla Schultz-Parks

Carla is of Nordic heritage and has been making Lefse, the delicious potato flatbread from Norway, for many years. She's also an expert baker of Danish Kransekage, the impressive crisp-on-the outside, chewy-on-the-inside concentric circle almond meringue cake. She'll give you step-by-step instruction on how to make these Scandinavian treats yourself. With the holidays on our doorstep, she'll also demonstrate how you can turn the Kransekage into scrumptious cookies to give as gifts. You'll take some of each home and taste both in class with a cup of tea. Gain the confidence to master these two seasonal favorites at home! $60

"If you really want to make a friend, go to someone's house and eat with him...the people who give you their food give you their heart."
 -Cesar Chavez

I think that the only reason I started cooking was because I loved to entertain. When I was little, I'd look through our Betty Crocker Children's Cookbook and find fun "recipes" like a scoop of cottage cheese with maraschino cherries and other goodies that created a face. I thought how much my neighborhood friends would like to come over and find that in front of them on their plate, so I invited them over. For me, it was all about making people happy with food. When I was older, I wasn't particularly interested in cooking until I made chicken cacciatore for some classmates, until I made crab soufflé for my boyfriend, until I made Dutch Baby Pancakes for my roommates, until I made enchiladas for my future in-laws. Ah, I thought, this makes people really happy! When I got married, we started having friends and family over for dinner every other week, and that was that.

Yes, 'tis the season for making those we love feel happy with food, be it Hanukah, Christmas, Kwanzaa, New Year's, Valentine's Day or just a winter birthday. It's the time when many of us want to get in the kitchen and create memorable meals or make edible gifts for giving. Food is such a part of the celebrations of life.

Speaking of celebrations, Taste the Holiday Spirit, Bayview Thriftway's big holiday extravaganza, is coming up on December 9th. Because BSC is located within Bayview Thriftway, we are really part of one big family. I feel so fortunate to get to work with the amazing people who keep this store going strong. There's Shelly, our amazing deli and bakery manager whose sense of style and taste has created a remarkable little store within a store. There's Jason, our meat department manager who is always willing to try and get whatever we need for a class. There's Nate, our produce manager who dashes from Ralph's to Bayview and back again, and still manages to create a gorgeous array of all the fruits and vegetables you'd ever want. There's Sabrina, our bulk department manager who is forever finding new and exciting items to try. There's Amber, our wonderful housewares manager whose artistic eye makes it a joy to peruse this department. There's Terry, our assistant store director and grocery manager whose attention to detail and humor make it fun to go to work. And then there's Carol, Bayview's store director who is everywhere at once and allows those she's managing to do what they do best. Of course, there are all the other folks who work at Bayview that make it a joy to step in the door. I feel very lucky to get to work with all of them.

I love seeing all of you who come to our classes too! Look through this brochure and find a class that captures your fancy. Have a wonderful winter and I hope to see you soon, upstairs in the BSC kitchen!

Exploring Korean Cuisine

Chef Toby Kim

Join Chef Toby for another foray into the popular world of Korean Cuisine. He'll start with one of the best-loved dishes in Korea, Doenjang Jjigae, a warm, fermented soy bean paste stew with shrimp, comfort food that's especially perfect for this time of year. The menu continues with several side dishes, a ubiquitous part of any Korean meal, including Kkakdugi, cubed radish kimchi, Oi Muchim, spicy cucumbers, Kongnamul Muchim, made with soy bean sprouts, and Kimchi Jeon, a bacon and kimchi pancake. The main dish is Kongnamul Bulgogi, paper-thin slices of well-marbled pork sautéed with Perilla leaves, bean sprouts and vegetables bathed in a spicy sauce. This famous and popular dish in Seoul is usually cooked tableside, and as an extra treat, steamed rice and additional seasonings are added to the final saucy bits to create a delicious fried rice finale. Complementary beer pairing. $60

Warm Food for a Cold Winter Night

Lee Ann Ufford

The dark, chilly nights of the new year need a little warmth! Lee Ann offers a casual, comforting menu that's perfect for entertaining or a romantic dinner for two. Using a variety of chilies and peppers she brings a gently spiced depth to some classics. For starters, Sriracha meets oyster crackers in her Zesty Party Crackers, and Avocado Toasts get a Middle Eastern hint of Aleppo pepper. Pacific Northwest ingredients complement Italian cheese and red pepper flakes in her Apple, Walnut and Provolone Salad. Local seafood gets a twist of Gochujang in the entrée, Korean-Spiced Cioppino, served over orzo, and ancho chilies add complexity to the finale, Chocolate-Chillie-Espresso Pots de Crème. Light the fire, open some wine and make a toast to winter! Complementary wine pairing. $50

Bread and Curry - An Evening in India

Mitra Mohandessi

Eating homemade meals together is an integral part of Indian culture. The aroma of homemade breads, prepared for any meal of the day, summons everyone to the table. Join Mitra as she discusses the variety of Indian breads and teaches you to make Puri, a crispy, fried, whole wheat thin bread, paired with Sambar Daal, a vegetarian stew of yellow split peas simmered in aromatic spices with cauliflower and coconut pulp. She'll also demonstrate how to make Naan, the popular soft oven-baked leavened bread, served alongside Doi Maach, seasoned wok sautéed fish in a creamy yogurt, golden raisin and sweet spice curry. Masala Chai, a glass of steeped black tea and spices is the perfect ending to this home-style prepared evening. (Please note class times) Complementary wine pairing. $60

A Cozy Winter Dinner with Bogle Vineyards

Ronnie Gedatus, Bogle Representative

Barb Agee and Leanne Willard, your chefs for the evening

The Bogle family has been farming since the mid-1800's, but it wasn't until 1968 that the father and son team of Warren and Chris planted their first 20 acres of wine grapes in Clarksburg, California. Today Bogle Vineyards farms over 1,500 acres of wine grapes and the success of Bogle over the years is rooted in one thing, the day-to-day involvement of the Bogle family. Join Bogle Winery representative Ronnie Gedatus to learn about their wines and taste five of their best paired with a wintery menu presented by Barb and Leanne. Start with Shrimp and Boston Lettuce Salad with Garlic and Mint Dressing matched with Bogle Sauvignon Blanc, and Butternut Squash Soup with Roasted Fennel and Pecans, served with Bogle Pinot Noir. An appetizer course of Lamb Phyllo Triangles is perfect with the Bogle Essential Red and Beef Bourguignon with Buttered Egg Noodles is complemented by their Cabernet Sauvignon. For dessert, Pear Galette with Whipped Cream and Zinfandel Sauce pairs beautifully with Bogle Zinfandel. $75 per person

Hands-On Timpano

Lee Ann Ufford

Made famous by its starring role in the movie The Big Night, a Timpano is a gorgeous celebratory entree, an edible drum made of rosemary pastry, filled with fresh pasta, Italian meats, eggs, and a rich, slow-simmered ragu. With Lee Ann as your guide and working as a group, participants will make the pastry, assemble the drum and lid and roll the pasta. The Timpano will be served with Insalata Mista, with winter greens and olives, and Buttery Garlic Bruschetta. The evening will come to a sweet finish with a frozen Amaretti Semifreddo. Join Lee Ann for this "Big Night" of hands-on fun. Complementary wine pairing. $60
